I'm home, but one suitcase didn't make it. It's in Dubai waiting as a deposit making sure I will return! They want $1250 for shipping. It may have the family's gifts in it, but let me assure you none of it is worth anywhere near that number!!

People have wondered if I actually was able to enter the USA and if I would be quarantined. I made it without a hitch, and all they said to me in immigration was, "Welcome Home!"

First, I want to thank you for all your prayers for God's work. I was blessed to walk out this 54 day trip with our Savior. I saw Him compassionately love, encourage, build up, heal and save so many people. These numbers are the best I can give at this point.

- I saw close to 7,000 people give their lives to Christ in 15 crusades held in Uganda, Philippines and Pakistan.
- Hundreds of people were healed, encouraged and restarted their walk with Jesus.
- Around 900 pastors and leaders were trained and invited to make Jesus their first love and to faithfully make disciples who share their faith and train new believers. We can only make disciples of Jesus by our intimate example.
- We provided 100 Swahili Bibles to Congolese Refugee pastors/leaders.
- We provided 400 English, 200 Luganda and 300 Swahili journals.
- We saw the French and Urdu journal drafts and the Tagalog and Cebuano journals are being started.

- The ministry done on this trip has impacted over 2000 churches in Uganda, Philippines, Dubai, Sharja, Togo, Pakistan and Ethiopia.

No man could imagine. But, this was all in God's mind for this 54 day trip!

Second, I have come home to a world with a lot of grieving over how our future has become uncertain. My heart breaks with yours, and I want you to know Jesus loves you. He is on His throne and still wants to gather us under His wings like a mother hen with her chicks. But, we often need help to trust. That's why God gives us the privilege to pray for each other.

So, my family and I would like to pray for you for the next 54 Days. Would you reply to this email with your prayer concerns and I will add your need to the list I bring to our Heavenly Father each morning?

Together, seeking Jesus as First Love then His First Things.

For His Glory,
David
