

Andrew,

I have just finished my 18th and final day in Uganda. As I wait for my plane to the Philippines, I feel grateful for what I saw Jesus do in my time here and I am grateful for you partnering with me in prayer. I have received a number of text, messenger and WhatsApp messages reminding me of your active presence before our God. Your prayers have not been in vain.

The original plan was to teach pastors in 4 communities, but a 5th one was squeezed in upon my arrival. God was calling pastors back to Him as first love: to not build their kingdoms, but His kingdom. I saw Bishops, over dozens of churches, repent and then declare to their leaders, "We will humbly

bey God. We will seek Jesus as our first love, we will forsake everything and start sharing our faith in the streets and make disciples of Jesus." Here are pictures from the five locations:

Wakiso - 25 leaders, 9 churches Kyaka II - 133 leaders, 10 churches

Kyaka II - Barren mom, 1 year later!, Baptisms!

Arua - 95 Pastors/Bishops/Leaders

Kasese - 29 pastor/bishops Bushenyi - 27 Seminary students

In addition, I was able to preach in 3 churches and preach in two community crusades in public spaces. We saw many people delivered of demons, healed of diseases and become Born Again! There is nothing like seeing a life transformed in front on you. The person's countenance changes and they move from hardness to joy. Jesus still loves and still sets captives free. Here are some pictures

I now head to the Philippines for daily crusades and apostolic work. Please continue to pray for unity and the salvation of many people. My VISA was approved for Pakistan so I just purchased my final legs of the trip coming in March. I am trusting to see His will unfold each day that I might know I am being obedient to His plans. One cannot love this world and have the love of the Father in him at the same time.

For His Glory,
David
